

Managing the migration crisis

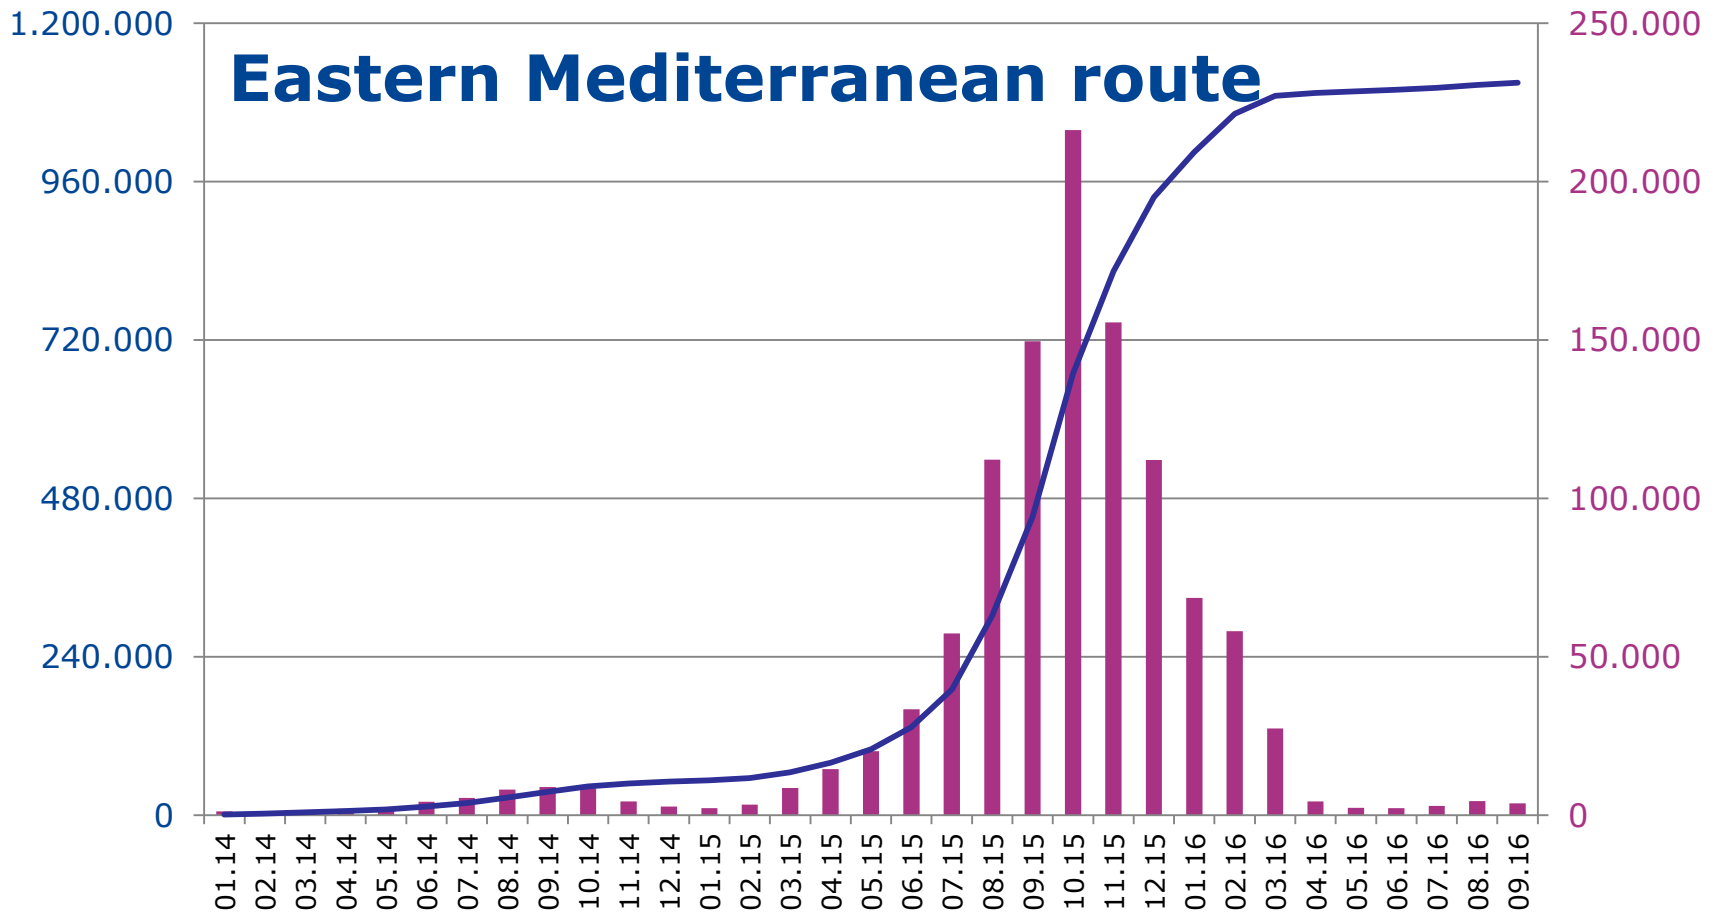

An example of use of statistics by policy makers in a crisis situation

*Improving Data on International Migration
Berlin, 1-3 December, 2016*

European
Commission

The migration crisis in figures

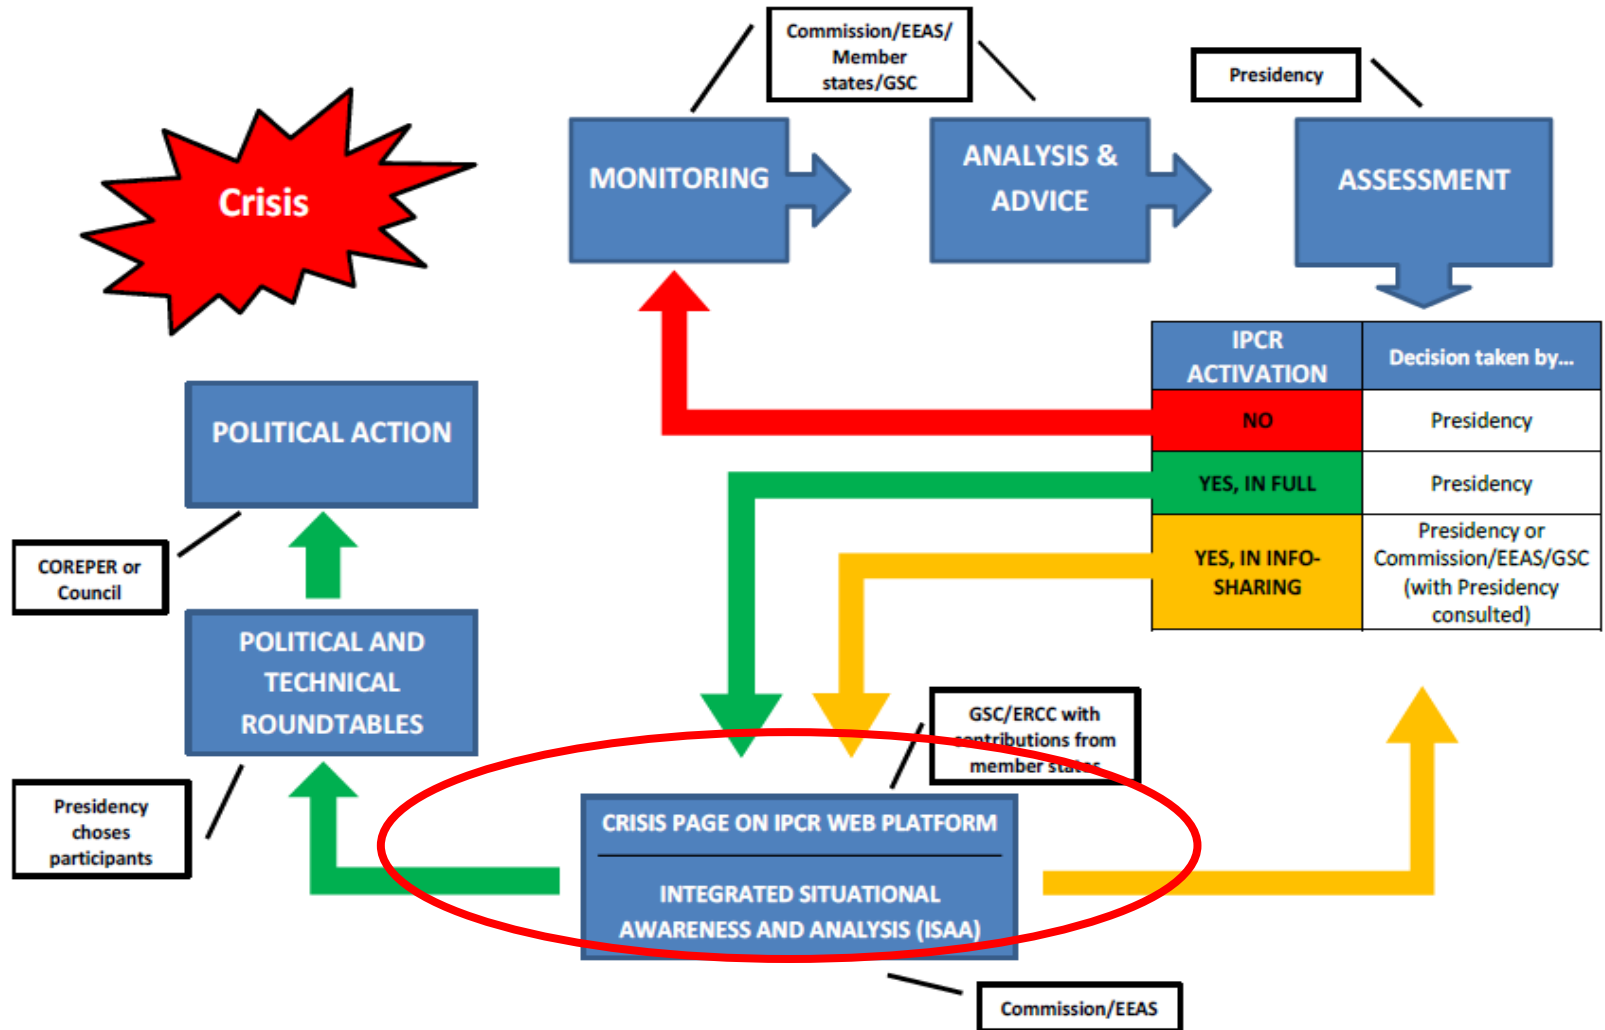

Integrated Political Crisis Response (IPCR)

European Commission

Workflow of IPCR arrangements

European
Commission

IPCR-specific Elements

- ✓ Shared situational awareness @28
 - ISAA report compiled by the Commission and the EEAS
 - IPCR Web Platform: central point for information-exchange
 - Central 24/7 point of contact
- ✓ Presidency steering on the handling of the crisis in the Council, including via IPCR Roundtables
- ✓ Support to decision making - preparing COREPER, COUNCIL and EUROPEAN COUNCIL
- ✓ An integrated/interinstitutional approach

European
Commission

What is the ISAA report?

- Integrated Situational Awareness and Analysis
- Produced weekly by the European Commission and the EEAS
- Inputs from several Commission Services, EU+ States and EU Agencies (Frontex, EASO, Europol, FRA...)
- Tailored on the needs of the political actors
- Allows a strategic overview of the situation and an informed debate

European
Commission

What is in the ISAA report?

- Analysis of the situation
- Assessment of the EU response
- Identification of possible shortcomings

European
Commission

Analysis of the situation

- Arrivals
- Movements within EU and in the Western Balkans
- Operations / incidents
- Asylum applications
- .....

European
Commission

Assessment of the EU response

- Reception capacity
- Relocations
- Resettlements
- Deployment of officers / equipment
- In-kind (UCPM) and financial support
- .....

European
Commission

Statistics: the policy needs

- Data requirements

 - Timeliness*

- Quality

 - Assessment of reliability of the source
 - Reconciliation of data from different sources
 - Assessment of potential political bias in data sources

- New data/information collations

 - Western Balkan daily report
 - IPCR Questionnaire for Member States
 - IRMA (Returns)

European
Commission

The migration crisis in figures

European
Commission

Thank you for your attention

Rita Di Prospero

Knowledge Hub for Migration and Security

DG Migration and Home Affairs

rita.di-prospiero@ec.europa.eu

<http://ec.europa.eu/dgs/home-affairs>